THE BEST WAY TO ADVERTISE JOBS FOR LESS

AutoOutreachSM Job Posting Offers Targeted Marketing To Your Best Applicant Sources: Low Tech, Great Results

Norwalk, CT. --- (June 2, 2005) --- ERC Dataplus, Inc., a leading Human Resource technology company, offers AutoOutreachSM Job Posting, a targeted efax and email job posting system. AutoOutreach Job Posting offers employers the opportunity to target postings to their best applicant sources when new openings occur - automatically, either scheduled or on-demand.

This automated system has shown itself to be an effective way to attract candidates, especially minority and WOTC eligible candidates. Set up is simple: identify applicant sources and simply enter the intended recipient and their email or fax number. Weekly, or more frequently, AutoOutreach checks for open positions on the Selectech[®] CMS System and sends a custom email or fax message to applicant sources. Custom posting messages can include any information about the job including a job description, requirements, pay rate, and the next step in your application process. All postings are recorded and summarized in a monthly report that will support outreach efforts that are part of an Affirmative Action Plan.

AutoOutreach is offered on a standalone basis or as a part of ERC's Selectech[®] Candidate Management System. Clients using Selectech CMS can also automatically pre-qualify, collect employment applications, and schedule applicants for interviews. AutoOutreach is available for less than a dollar per day per location.

For more information about using AutoOutreach or Selectech Candidate Management System to improve your ability to attract and evaluate candidates automatically, at low cost, email ERC at info@ercdataplus.com or call 1-888-ERC-CORP.
